

Samara State Institute of Culture

.....

CALL FOR SERVAS ARTISTS FOR AN EXHIBITION IN RUSSIA!

The Samara State Institute of Culture in Russia has invited Jean-Luc Turlure to create a slideshow of visual art work by Servas artists. The works are exhibited in a slide show in their museum. If you want to join other Servas artists around the world to create a collection of art that expresses Servas' values and mission of peace, please share your work with Jean-Luc. He is looking for paintings, sculptures, photographs, videos, etc. for this project.

How to Apply

Servas Artists

Goal of project: To promote Servas' values of peace, communication, and cultural exchange through art.

- Jean-Luc will collect the pieces of art and create a slideshow by the end of June.
- The museum will have an exhibition of either the physical or printed reproductions of the works.
- They museum will place the pieces in a catalog.
- A slide show showcasing the art will be created and will be circulated around the world of Servas.
- The copyright will be written under each person's work.

Required Art Theme: Servas values: "Peace through Colors"

If you are interested, you can email your visuals to Jean-Luc in 300 dpi, (3 works maximum). Currently, ten artists have responded by sending digitized photographs. More are needed.

Please include:

- Name of the artist
- Servas Country
- Email address your CV references

Send artwork by: June 15, 2020 Send artwork to: Jean-Luc Turlure (Servas France):
artists@servas.org (+33 (0) 683 731309)
