"We must work together and make all efforts to achieve what we have set out: 'to leave no-one behind.'"

Marie Chatardová, President of ECOSOC

Servas International is a non-profit, non-governmental federation of national Servas groups, encompassing a world-wide network of hosts and travelers.

In 1973 Servas International was granted consultative status at ECOSOC (Economic and Social Council) at the United Nations.

The purpose of the Servas network is to help build world peace, goodwill and understanding by providing opportunities for personal contacts among people of different cultures, backgrounds and nationalities.
